

TechStore - Payment Policy

TechStore accepts major credit cards, debit cards, and supported digital payment methods.

Payment must be completed before an order can be processed for shipment.

Customers should never send card numbers, passwords, or security codes through customer support messages.

If a payment fails, customers should verify their payment details or try another supported payment method.

Refunds are returned through the original payment method when possible.